LESSON FROM ACTS

Guidelines For Drawing Out Applications

1. Acts records history and is a narrative; it is neither doctrinal nor didactic.

2. Content in quotes are not to be regarded as divine instruction for us.

3. We are to follow their examples in the larger sense, not necessarily in specific practices.

Worthy Examples To Imitate

1. Content in gospel presentations

2. Finding common ground as a starting point for evangelism

3. Relying on the Holy Spirit rather than programs and marketing strategies

4. Willingness to endure hardship and persecution

5.

6.

7.

8.

What Not To Imitate

1.

2.

How Love Of Money Can Influence A Church

1. Control

2. Boycott

3. Favoritism

4. Compromise